

TODAY’S READING’S

Reading 1 Exodus 22:20-26

Thus says the LORD: "You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans. "If you lend money to one of your poor neighbors among my people, you shall not act like an extortioner toward him by demanding interest from him. If you take your neighbor's cloak as a pledge, you shall return it to him before sunset; for this cloak of his is the only covering he has for his body. What else has he to sleep in? If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate."

Responsorial Psalm

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

I love you, O LORD, my strength, O LORD, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

My God, my rock of refuge, my shield, the horn of my salvation, my stronghold! Praised be the LORD, I exclaim, and I am safe from my enemies.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

The LORD lives and blessed be my rock! Extolled be God my savior. You who gave great victories to your king and showed kindness to your anointed.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

Reading 2 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10

Brothers and sisters: You know what sort of people we were among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in great affliction, with joy from the Holy Spirit, so that you became a model for all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything. For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, who delivers us from the coming wrath.

Gospel Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

ALL SOULS DAY NOVEMBER 2ND

In the Catholic Church, praying for the dead is a significant practice rooted in the belief that prayers can aid the souls of the deceased in their journey toward heaven. This practice is closely connected to the doctrine of ‘Purgatory’ where souls that are not yet purified but are destined for heaven.

Masses for the dead: offering Mass for the deceased is considered one of the most powerful forms of prayers. The Eucharist celebration is believed to be particularly effective in helping the souls in purgatory.

All Souls Day: November 2nd is a special day in the Catholic Church liturgical calendar dedicated to praying for all the faithful departed. So those of you who wish to offer Masses for your loved ones you may use the envelopes bearing the names of your loved ones with the offering or donation which will be used for the vocation promotion for the priesthood.

The family of Annunciation parish is going to remember the loved ones and pray for them in a special way throughout the month of November by displaying their pictures in the sanctuary and their names placed on the altar at every Mass.

Please submit a picture and name so this will be ready and displayed for ‘All Souls Day’. You may drop off at the rectory during office hours.

Month of the Holy Rosary
October

“The Rosary is the most beautiful and the most rich in graces of all prayers; it is the prayer that touches most the Heart of the Mother of God... and if you wish peace to reign in your homes, recite the family Rosary.”
