TODAY'S READING'S

Reading 1 Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Peter proceeded to speak and said: "You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

Responsorial Psalm

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his mercy endures forever. Let the house of Israel say, "His mercy endures forever."

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

"The right hand of the LORD has struck with power; the right hand of the LORD is exalted. I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD."

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. By the LORD has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes.

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Reading 2 Colossians 3:1-4

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Gospel John 20:1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

SERVE WITH JOY: YOUR CHURCH NEEDS YOU!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, Our parish is more than just a place of worship-it's a vibrant family, and every family grows strongly when each member brings their gifts to the table. We are inviting YOU to consider serving in one of these beautiful ministries in our church:

Readers (Lectors): 'Proclaim His Word with Faith and Power.'

The ministry of a Reader is more than simply reading. It is bringing God's Word to life for the community. When you proclaim Scripture, you allow others to hear God speaking to their hearts. You don't need to be a professional speaker, just a willing heart. With every reading, you plant seeds of hope, faith, and truth. If you love Scripture or simply want to grow in you spiritual life, this ministry is a powerful way to do that.

Alter Servers: "Serve at His Table with Honor and Joy."

Alter serving is a special opportunity to assist the priest and be close to the most sacred moments of the Mass. It helps deepen your love for the Eucharist and teaches reverence, responsibility, and teamwork. Whether you're a child, teen, or adult, this ministry forms faith in a beautiful way. Altar servers are not just helpers, they are witnesses of devotion and prayer.

Ushers:

Extend a warm welcome, offer guidance, and help maintain the spirit of hospitality during our liturgies.

No prior experience is needed, just a willing heart and a love for serving God and His people. Training will be provided. Whether you're young or young at heart and spirit, God can use you in a powerful way. Take a step forward and become more involved in the spiritual life of our parish. Please do consider serving our beautiful parish.

Sign-up sheets are in the back of the church, or feel free to contact the parish office for more information.

Let's grow together in faith and service. Your "yes" can make a big difference!

On Monday, April 21st the parish office will be closed

Mass Intentions

Offering masses for both deceased loved ones and the living is a deeply rooted tradition in the Catholic Church and many Christian denominations. It reflect a belief in the power of prayer, intercession and the communal support of the Church. Because the Mass is the highest form of worship on Earth, there are many fruits and graces that result from having a Mass said. The celebration of the Eucharist is the highest form of worship in the Catholic Church because we unite ourselves with Christ's sacrifice on the cross in worship of his Father. Don't miss out on these graces for yourself and those you love! Find a reason to have a mass offered today. Please call the office with mass and special intentions for your loved ones. Dates are open.

Honor your Mother this Mother's Day with the gift of the Mass.

This Mother's day, let us remember and honor the incredible women who gave us life, nurtured us, and shaped our faith. Whether your Mother is still with you or has gone to her eternal rest, there is no greater gift you can offer than the Holy Mass.

So those that wish to offer Mass for Mothers, spiritual, adoptive and biological you may use the Mother's Day special envelopes that are in the vestibule or you may contact the parish office to schedule a mass offering for Mother's Day.

No CCD classes this weekend. Classes resume next Sunday April 27th.

SERVE WITH JOY: YOUR CHURCH NEEDS YOU!

Our parish is inviting you to consider serving in one of the many beautiful ministries in our church:
