TODAY’S READING’S

Reading I Proverbs 8:22-31

Thus says the wisdom of God: "The LORD possessed me, the beginning of his ways, the forerunner of his prodigies of long ago; from of old I was poured forth, at the first, before the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no fountains or springs of water; before the mountains were settled into place, before the hills, I was brought forth; while as yet the earth and fields were not made, nor the first clods of the world. "When the Lord established the heavens I was there, when he marked out the vault over the face of the deep; when he made firm the skies above, when he fixed fast the foundations of the earth; when he set for the sea its limit, so that the waters should not transgress his command; then was I beside him as his craftsman, and I was his delight day by day, playing before him all the while, playing on the surface of his earth; and I found delight in the human race."

Responsorial Psalm

R O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

When I behold your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars which you set in place — What is man that you should be mindful of him, or the son of man that you should care for him?

R O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

You have made him little less than the angels, and crowned him with glory and honor. You have given him rule over the works of your hands, putting all things under his feet:

R O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

All sheep and oxen, yes, and the beasts of the field, The birds of the air, the fishes of the sea, and whatever swims the paths of the seas.

R O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

Reading II Romans 5:1-5

Brothers and sisters: Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Gospel John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

Honor Father’s this Father’s Day with Special Mass Intention.

This Father’s day, we invite you to remember and honor the fathers in your life, both living and deceased by offering a Mass in their name. Whether it is to give thanks for the love and guidance of a living father or to prayerfully remember a father who has gone before us, a Mass intention is a beautiful way to show your love and gratitude.

Please use the Father’s Day special envelops to write the fathers name or contact the parish office.

We invite all parishioners to take part in our raffle ticket fundraiser, by buying and selling tickets! This is a wonderful opportunity to support our church’s ongoing projects; you are not only supporting parish projects but also helping strengthen our faith community. Every ticket you sell or purchase helps us reach our fundraising goals while bringing our community closer together in spirit and purpose. Let’s work together to make a difference!

Tickets are available after Mass and in the parish office. Let’s spread the word and share the blessings!

Thank You.

Fr. Mark
