TODAY'S READING'S

Reading 1 Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14b-16a

Moses said to the people: "Remember how for forty years now the LORD, your God, has directed all your journeying in the desert, so as to test you by affliction and find out whether or not it was your intention to keep his commandments. He therefore let you be afflicted with hunger, and then fed you with manna, a food unknown to you and your fathers, in order to show you that not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the LORD. "Do not forget the LORD, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery; who guided you through the vast and terrible desert with its saraph serpents and scorpions, its parched and waterless ground; who brought forth water for you from the flinty rock and fed you in the desert with manna, a food unknown to your fathers."

Responsorial Psalm

R. Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

Glorify the LORD, O Jerusalem; praise your God, O Zion. For he has strengthened the bars of your gates; he has blessed your children within you.

R. Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

He has granted peace in your borders; with the best of wheat he fills you. He sends forth his command to the earth; swiftly runs his word!

R. Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

He has proclaimed his word to Jacob, his statutes and his ordinances to Israel. He has not done thus for any other nation; his ordinances he has not made known to them. Alleluia.

R. Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

Reading 2 1 Corinthians 10:16-17

Brothers and sisters: The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

Gospel John 6:51-58

Jesus said to the Jewish crowds: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever."

We are undertaking a much needed project in our Parish. The construction of a proper walkway leading to the parish hall from the church. This walkway will provide safe and convenient access for all our parishioners, especially the elderly, children and those with mobility challenges. We humbly appeal to your generosity and kindness to support this project. Your contribution, no matter the amount, will go a long way in helping us complete this important work for our parish community. If you feel called to assist, donations can be made by using the special envelopes in the pews of by contacting the parish office or Fr. Mark. Thank you for your continued support, generosity and love for our parish.

Honor Fathers this Father's Day with Special Mass Intention.

This Father's Day, we invite you to remember and honor the fathers in your life, both living and deceased by offering a Mass in their name.

Whether it is to give thanks for the love and guidance of a living father or to prayerfully remember a father who has gone before us, a Mass intention is a beautiful way to show your love and gratitude.

Please use the Father's Day special envelopes to write the fathers name or contact the parish office.

Let us come together as a parish family to pray for all fathers, asking God to bless, protect, and welcome them into His eternal embrace.

If you would like to burn the sanctuary candle 'In memory of' or 'In honor of' your loved ones in the Church or in the chapel, please call the office.

Please call the office with Mass and special intentions for your loved ones. Dates are open.
