

TODAY’S READING’S

Reading 1 Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp, subduing nations before him, and making kings run in his service, opening doors before him and leaving the gates unbarred: For the sake of Jacob, my servant, of Israel, my chosen one, I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not. I am the LORD and there is no other, there is no God besides me. It is I who arm you, though you know me not, so that toward the rising and the setting of the sun people may know that there is none besides me. I am the LORD, there is no other.

Responsorial Psalm

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

Sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all you lands. Tell his glory among the nations; among all peoples, his wondrous deeds.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

For great is the LORD and highly to be praised; awesome is he, beyond all gods. For all the gods of the nations are things of nought, but the LORD made the heavens.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

Give to the LORD, you families of nations, give to the LORD glory and praise; give to the LORD the glory due his name! Bring gifts, and enter his courts.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

Worship the LORD, in holy attire; tremble before him, all the earth; say among the nations: The LORD is king, he governs the peoples with equity.

R. Give the Lord glory and honor.

Reading 2 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace to you and peace. We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father, knowing, brothers and sisters loved by God, how you were chosen. For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction.

Gospel Matthew 22:15-21

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

ALL SOULS DAY NOVEMBER 2ND

In the Catholic Church, praying for the dead is a significant practice rooted in the belief that prayers can aid the souls of the deceased in their journey toward heaven. This practice is closely connected to the doctrine of ‘Purgatory’ where souls that are not yet purified but are destined for heaven.

Masses for the dead: offering Mass for the deceased is considered one of the most powerful forms of prayers. The Eucharist celebration is believed to be particularly effective in helping the souls in purgatory.

All Souls Day: November 2nd is a special day in the Catholic Church liturgical calendar dedicated to praying for all the faithful departed. So those of you who wish to offer Masses for your loved ones you may use the envelopes bearing the names of your loved ones with the offering or donation which will be used for the vocation promotion for the priesthood.

The family of Annunciation parish is going to remember the loved ones and pray for them in a special way throughout the month of November by displaying their pictures in the sanctuary and their names placed on the altar at every Mass.

Please submit a picture and name so this will be ready and displayed for ‘All Souls Day’. You may drop off at the rectory during office hours.
