TODAY'S READING'S

Reading I Wisdom 3:1-9

The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace. For if before men, indeed, they be punished, yet is their hope full of immortality; chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worthy of himself. As gold in the furnace, he proved them, and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself. In the time of their visitation they shall shine, and shall dart about as sparks through stubble; they shall judge nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord shall be their King forever. Those who trust in him shall understand truth, and the faithful shall abide with him in love: because grace and mercy are with his holy ones, and his care is with his elect.

Responsorial Psalm

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose; beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

He guides me in right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff that give me courage.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes; You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Reading II Romans 5:5-11

Brothers and sisters: Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. For Christ, while we were still helpless, died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. How much more then, since we are now justified by his Blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath. Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, once reconciled, will we be saved by his life. Not only that, but we also boast of God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Gospel John 6:37-40

Jesus said to the crowds: "Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me. And this is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me, but that I should raise it on the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day."

Thank You to Our Outgoing Parish Council President and Welcome to Our New President

Our parish community extends its heartfelt gratitude to Mr. Maurice Malochee, who is retiring from his role as President of the Parish Pastoral Council after many years of dedicated service. His leadership, commitment to our parish, and generous spirit have been a true blessing. We thank him for his faithful guidance and the many ways he has helped strengthen our parish community. May God reward him abundantly and continue to bless him with health and peace.

We are also pleased to announce and welcome Mr. Darrell Favre as our new Parish Pastoral Council President. We are grateful for his willingness to serve the parish in this important role of leadership and collaboration. Let us keep him in our prayers as he begins this new mission, guided by the Holy Spirit and supported by our parish family.

Please join us in thanking Mr. Maurice for his outstanding service and in welcoming Mr. Darrell with our prayers and support.

Parents, please bring your children to their CCD classes on Sunday's 9:15 -10:15

We are beginning a Flower Fund for those who would like to donate in honor or in memory of a loved one.
