Today's Readings

First Reading (Joshua 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b)

Joshua gathered together all the tribes of Israel at Shechem, summoning their elders, their leaders, their judges, and their officers. When they stood in ranks before God, Joshua addressed all the people: "If it does not please you to serve the Lord, decide today whom you will serve, the gods your fathers served beyond the River or the gods of the Amorites in whose country you are now dwelling. As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." But the people answered, "Far be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other gods. For it was the Lord, our God, who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, out of a state of slavery. He performed those great miracles before our very eyes and protected us along our entire journey and among the peoples through whom we passed. Therefore we also will serve the Lord, for He is our God."

Psalm (Psalm 34:2-3, 16-17, 18-19, 20-21)

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times; His praise shall be ever in my mouth. Let my soul glory in the Lord; the lowly will hear me and be glad.

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

The Lord has eyes for the just, and ears for their cry. The Lord confronts the evildoers, to destroy remembrance of them from the earth.

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

When the just cry out, the Lord hears them, and from all their distress He rescues them. The Lord is close to the brokenhearted; and those who are crushed in spirit He saves.

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Many are the troubles of the just one, but out of them all the Lord delivers him; He watches over all his bones; not one of them shall be broken.

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord

Second Reading (Ephesians 5:21-32)

Brothers and sisters: Be subordinate to one another out of reverence for Christ. Wives should be subordinate to their husbands as to the Lord. For the husband is head of his wife just as Christ is head of the church, he himself the savior of the body. As the church is subordinate to Christ, so wives should be subordinate to their husbands in everything. Live in love as Christ loved us. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved the church and handed himself over for her to sanctify her, cleansing her by the bath of water with the word, that he might present to himself the church in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. So also husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. For no one hates his own flesh but rather nourishes and cherishes it, even as Christ does the church, because we are members of His Body. For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. This is a great mystery, but I speak in reference to Christ and the church.

Gospel (John 6:60-69)

Many of Jesus' disciples who were listening said, "This saying is hard; who can accept?" Since Jesus knew that His disciples were murmuring about this, He said to them, "Does this shock you? What if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where He was before? It is the spirit that gives life, while the flesh is of no avail. The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe." Jesus knew from the beginning the ones who would not believe and the one who would betray Him. And He said, "For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by my Father." As a result of this, many of His disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied Him. Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?" Simon Peter answered Him, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that You are the Holy One of God."

Gospel Reflection

Last Sunday we celebrated the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary but missed the real explanation on the Body of Christ as it comes on the 20th Sunday of ordinary times.

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world." (John 6: 51). Further Jesus said "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you... Whoever feeds upon my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. (John 6: 53, 54).

"It was at the Last Supper that Jesus linked his Flesh with the bread he blessed, broke and shared with his disciples. Likewise, he linked his Blood with the cup of wine he blessed, offered, and passed around, Blood that was the pledge of an unbreakable bond between Jesus and his people. "This is my Body (my Flesh) ... This is My Blood... which will be poured out for you." The Bread that we eat in the Eucharist is the Body of the Risen Lord; the Wine that we drink in the Eucharist is the Blood of the Risen Lord. When Jesus spoke of his Flesh and Blood as the Food and Drink of eternal life, he was offering himself to the multitude as the real Source of Life. To eat the Flesh of Jesus and to drink his Blood is to become totally identified with Christ's very Person, with his deepest thoughts, with his vision of life, with his values, and with his mission to build the Kingdom of God. In other words, Jesus is here calling us to follow him, to be with him, and to share totally and unconditionally his mission and destiny. Thus, the Eucharist is more than a memorial of Jesus' death (1Cor 11:23-25). Rather, it is the continuation of Jesus' life after his Resurrection (Luke 24:13-35)." (Fr. Tony)

Today's Gospel passage is the concluding part of his long Eucharistic discourse. It challenged his Jewish audience, and later His apostles, to make their choice: to accept Him as the true Bread from Heaven.

Many of his disciples deserted Jesus since he said it in the literal sense to eat his body and drink his blood to have eternal life.

Bishop Kihneman has updated the COVID 19 response in view of its surge.
